

SIETAR Conference and Workshops 2005
"Intercultural Communication in a Globalised World"
UK, 9/10th July 2005

With more than 3,000 members, the Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research (SIETAR) is the world's largest interdisciplinary network for academics, students and professionals working in the field of intercultural communication.

The main purpose of SIETAR is to encourage and support the development and application of values, knowledge and skills that promote and reinforce beneficial and long-lasting intercultural and inter-ethnic relations at the individual, group, organisation and community levels.

This year SIETAR UK is organising a conference and workshops with the theme of "Intercultural Communication in a Globalised World" in July 2005. Papers are invited on issues which are crucial to the understanding and practice of intercultural communication in today's world. In particular, papers which consider the following, are welcome:

- Business in a multicultural World
- Media and Multiculturalism
- Diversity and Education
- Culture in the Community
- Virtual Teams
- Politics and Culture
- Social Psychology and Culture
- Arts across Cultures

The above is not intended to be all-inclusive, and we welcome any other suggestions, submissions or proposals for other tracks.

Guidelines for Submission of Abstracts / Papers:

Submissions should be in the form of abstracts only.

Maximum length: 3 pages: Title page + 1 page (300 words) abstract + 1 page of references if required

Margins: all 2.5cm or 1 inch, text: 10 points, 1.5 line spacing.

Title Page: Title, author(s), affiliation(s), contact details and a short biography

Abstracts should be submitted electronically, either in Word (Word 6 and above) or PDF file by 1st of November 2004 to s.dahl@mdx.ac.uk . If you do not have access to email, please send your abstract to:
